Please indicate below that you understand the following statements regarding Financial Aid application at Centre:

- I understand I must submit the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and the Centre Aid Form by February 15 in order to receive priority consideration for need-based aid.

All timely applicants will be considered for general merit scholarships. The special scholarships below require additional materials. Please check below if you plan to apply for any of these scholarships. Application forms are available at www.centre.edu/scholarships.

- Brown Fellows Program (full cost plus). A premier scholarship and enrichment program for highly competitive students. More information available at www.centre.edu/brownfellows.
- Bonner Program ($2,500 per year plus priority consideration for need-based aid). The Bonner Program recognizes students who demonstrate both financial need and outstanding potential for community service.
- Language (up to $7,500 per year). Language Scholarships are available to both language majors and non-majors alike and recognize advanced language skills, accomplishment and students likely to provide leadership in language study on our campus.
- LSAMP Summer Research (up to $5,000 over two summers and Bridge to the Doctorate pre-qualification). LSAMP Summer Research Scholarships target designated, under-represented student populations interested in science, technology, engineering and/or mathematics.
- New Horizons ($20,000 per year plus priority consideration for need-based aid). New Horizon Scholarships recognize students likely to provide diversity leadership on our campus.
- Performing Arts: music and/or drama (up to $7,500 per year). Performing Arts Scholarships are available to both music and/or drama majors and non-majors and recognize talent, accomplishment and students likely to provide performing arts leadership on our campus.
