

Assistant Professor of English with Specialization in Creative Writing (Fiction)

Centre College invites applications for a three-year visiting assistant professor in English beginning August 2012. The successful candidate will hold a MFA or PhD and specialize in creative writing (fiction). Centre College English faculty also teach in an interdisciplinary Humanities sequence for first-year students; teaching responsibility for this position is six courses per year of which three or four will be fiction writing and literature and two or three will be Humanities. Candidates must demonstrate a strong commitment to teaching in a student-centered environment.

Centre College is a highly selective liberal arts college of 1,300 students, listed by U.S. News in the top fifty liberal arts colleges in the nation. Classes are small and academic standards are high. The College is located in Danville, Kentucky, a small town of 18,000 recognized for its high quality of life. It is within easy driving distance of Lexington, Louisville, and Cincinnati. Centre College is committed to hiring a diverse faculty of teachers/scholars. For information concerning the college, visit our web site at www.centre.edu.

To apply, please submit by post (no email applications): letter of application, statement of teaching philosophy, materials demonstrating teaching effectiveness, sample of fiction writing (no more than 20 pages), three letters of recommendation, CV, and transcripts to: Ms. Sallie Bright, Centre College, 600 W. Walnut St., Danville, KY 40422. Review of applications will begin November 15, 2011. Preliminary interviews will be conducted at the MLA conference in January, or by conference call. Centre College is an Equal Opportunity Employer.