

CENTRE

10 Reasons Why

“Among all Kentucky’s private colleges, Centre College in Danville routinely gets the highest ratings for academic quality . . .” —Louisville Courier-Journal

Here are 10 reasons why Centre’s educational leadership in Kentucky and the nation can make a difference to you.

1 Centre is the only Kentucky school ranked by U.S. News & World Report among the top 50 national liberal arts colleges. Centre has the highest academic rating of any Kentucky institution in The Princeton Review. And Centre is the only Kentucky institution included in Kiplinger’s Personal Finance Magazine’s top-50 values among private colleges. The Fiske Guide to Colleges calls Centre “the best of its breed in the Bluegrass State.”

2 “The top Kentucky high school students are drawn [to Centre]”—Kaplan’s Unofficial, Unbiased Insider’s Guide to the 320 Most Interesting Colleges

3 Centre students are intensely involved in learning. The National Survey of Student Engagement reports that in level of academic challenge, collaborative learning, and interaction with faculty, Centre students are among the most “educationally engaged” in the country.

4 Class sizes are small (average size is 18), with all classes taught by professors, not teaching assistants.

5 Centre provides extraordinary on-campus events for students—for example, concerts, plays, and musicals by some of the world’s best performing artists at the College’s Norton Center for the Arts. The upcoming season includes Hairspray, Amy Grant, The Producers, and the Boston Pops Orchestra.

6 Within 10 months of graduation, 96 percent of Centre students (on average) are either employed or engaged in advanced study.

7 Centre has the highest percentage of students who study abroad (over 80 percent) of any Kentucky educational institution and is the only

Kentucky school to be included among the U.S. News top-10 study-abroad programs nationally.

8 Centre has produced 24 student Fulbright Scholarship winners in the last 10 years (more than any private educational institution in Kentucky), and two-thirds of Kentucky’s Rhodes Scholarship winners in the last 40 years.

9 Centre is the only private school in Kentucky with a chapter of the national honor society Phi Beta Kappa.

10 Centre leads the nation in “customer satisfaction”—the percentage of alumni who make an annual financial contribution.

The Centre Commitment

Students who meet the College’s academic and social expectations are guaranteed an internship, study abroad, and graduation in four years—or the College will provide up to an additional year of study tuition-free.
