William Robert Leach

William Robert Leach considers Shelbyville, IL his hometown. At Centre, William majored in Biology, with a minor in Chemistry.

During his time at Centre, he has enjoyed being a part of Men's Golf, Greek Life and Chemistry Research, Centre Admissions, Student Athletic Advisory Committee, and the American Chemical Society. Will was also both a Chemistry tutor, and a Resident Director.

After graduation, Will will be pursuing a PhD at Texas A&M University in Genetics and Genomics under a T-32 fellowship, hopefully researching the intersection of the immune system and cancer.

Temiloluwa Adeola Haastrup

Temiloluwa Adeola Haastrup considers Grand Forks, ND her hometown. At Centre, Temi is a Lincoln Scholar who majored in Chemistry (Pre-Med).

During her time at Centre, she has served as a First Year Mentor, a Pre-Med Peer Mentor as well as a Statistics and General Chemistry tutor. She has been a student researcher since the summer after her first year and recently completed her John. C Young Scholar Research on the Synthesis of Photoactive Ruthenium-Fluconazole compounds for candida albicans. She also served as the treasurer and then President of the Black STEM coalition. Temi enjoyed her time at Centre through Centre singers, the Centre Orchestra, and the Jazz Fusion ensemble. Following graduation, Temi plans to attend the University of Louisville School of Medicine on the distinction tract of Global Infectious Diseases with the hopes of pursuing Hematology/Oncology to become a medical school professor.
