Deadlines for Fulbright Competition *

Wednesday, August 26: Mandatory informational meeting, 7:00-8:00 p.m. ET via Zoom

Meeting ID: 964 3720 0424

Password: 521102

Friday, August 28:

1. Send e-mail to both Iulia Sprinceana and Dina Badie indicating the country to which you will apply and the type of Fulbright grant (ETA, research, study), by 5:00 p.m. ET (even if you have already spoken to any of us, please send this email).
2. Begin application process on the Fulbright portal, by 5:00 p.m. ET. Make sure you select Centre College as the US institution through which you are applying.

Friday, September 4: Email hard copy of personal statement draft to Iulia Sprinceana and Dina Badie by 5:00 p.m. ET.

(Note: set up a meeting (preferably several) if you want to workshop drafts. Your hard copies will receive comments only if you set up a meeting. This is a draft, so you can keep working and making changes even after you turn it in.)

Friday, September 11: Email hard copy of statement of grant purpose draft to Iulia Sprinceana and Dina Badie by 5:00 p.m. ET.

(Note: set up a meeting (preferably several) if you want to workshop drafts. Your hard copies will receive comments only if you set up a meeting. This is a draft, so you can keep working and making changes even after you turn it in.)

Friday, September 18: Campus deadline. Submit final version of application on the Fulbright portal by 11:59 p.m. ET.

(Note: The interview committee needs to see the full application to make a fair assessment. This means that recommendation letters, official Centre transcripts, and complete essays need to be included by this deadline.)

September 22-24: Campus interviews. We will notify you the interview time and date. After the interview, your application will be un-submitted and you will be able to make revisions, based on the feedback from the interview. This means you must submit it again by the national deadline.

October 13, 5:00 p.m. ET: Fulbright Electronic Submission national deadline. This deadline is fixed and final with no appeals possible. Submit your application online through the Fulbright portal.

Please note: missing any of these deadlines automatically eliminates the candidate from Centre's Fulbright competition for this grant cycle. If you are off-campus, these deadlines should all be met via email. If you miss a campus deadline and would still like to be considered, you can apply "at large", which means that while you can still workshop your essays with us, you do not get the chance to interview or receive endorsement from Centre.
